WELCOME TO THE BALDWIN 50

INTRODUCING THE BALDWIN 50, LOCATED IN THE QUIET COMMUNITY OF STAPELTON IN BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA. This extremely private 50± acre farm sits at the end of the county-maintained Melvin Johnson Road and has so much to offer and is full of possibilities.

Sitting on the beautiful land is a modest four-bedroom, two-bathroom, 1,805± square foot brick home with a two-year-old metal roof. The property includes a 40' x 50' metal equipment/hay barn and a 30' x 80' new metal building, which is currently used as dog kennels but could easily be converted into horse stables or a barndominium. A new water well was recently installed to service the house and barn.

To top it all off, there are two ponds on site: a small pond up front and a 1.5± acre spring-fed technical pond positioned to the rear, designed for training champion field trial dogs.

MORE ABOUT THE BALDWIN 50

For those looking to build their dream home, there are several potential home sites overlooking the pond and beautiful rolling fields. Wildlife, including whitetail deer, frequent this property, and a 2± acre secluded field/food plot near the southwest corner is perfect for an afternoon deer hunt.

The Baldwin 50 has the potential to be anything your heart desires. It has a very rural feel but is conveniently located just 8± miles from the nearest Publix, 10± miles from Lowe's, 11± miles from Walmart, and less than a 15-minute drive to the new Novelis plant in Bay Minette.

Get ready to fall in love with the unique Baldwin 50, as properties of this size and quality are a rare find.
