Kadero Edley is from the small town of Raymond, MS, but currently resides in Water Valley, MS with his family. After high school he received scholarships to play football at MS Gulf Coast Community College followed by Belhaven University. Kadero graduated from MGCCC in 2012 and from Belhaven University with a B.S. in Sports Medicine/Exercise Science in 2015. By playing football all his life, it taught Kadero that hard work, discipline, dedication, and trust are the keys to being successful on a team.

Kadero is an avid outdoorsman that enjoys hunting, fishing, and all things outdoors. He's always had a passion for the outdoors since he was a kid and feels a sense of peace when enjoying one of God's greatest creations.

Helping others has been a part of his everyday life for as long as he can remember. He's currently licensed as a physical therapist assistant and always has enjoyed helping others. So, it was only right to put his love for helping people and love for the land into real estate. His passion for the land, enthusiasm for helping others, hard work, and dedication make him a great fit to assist you with your Real Estate needs. Give him a call for all your real estate needs!
