WELCOME TO THE EMANUEL 114

WELCOME TO THE EMANUEL 114—WHAT CAN BECOME THE ULTIMATE “OLD SOUTHERN HOMEPLACE”! Located just three miles northeast of Adrian, Georgia, is a secluded 114± acre gem. With frontage on Highway 80 and Keas Old Mill Pond Road, the Emanuel County tract offers hunting and fishing opportunities and a potential home site, along with farming and camping. The land is accessed by a decommissioned county road, off Highway 80, which is now the driveway and actually adds roughly three acres to the total offering.

Situated in the middle of the property is a 1918 farmhouse begging to be restored to its former charm. Power is available to the home. Just off the front porch is a 15± acre pecan orchard and a 10± acre pasture to the right. Other features include 10± year-old pines, hardwoods, and two ponds, each stocked with large bass, and together, they total 4.3± acres. The smaller of the two would be a great area for a duck hole. Additionally, you will find a wooden true-timber tool shed and numerous signs of wildlife such as bedding areas, trails, and scrapes.

The Emanuel 114 is rich in history and will make an amazing hunting camp or homeplace.
The seller will consider dividing the property into 20 acre tracts.*
