The Property

Lot 3 - 2.312± acres

Own a Piece of Bogalusa's History

This 2.312± acre lot on McGehee Road, just outside the Bogalusa city limits, offers a rare blend of history and quiet country living. The land carries a story of its past, complete with an old log barn still standing, a reminder of the generations that came before. With road frontage, no land-use restrictions, and power and water available from the road, this property is ready for your vision. The old log barn offers some history that could be used in a new home for that rustic feel. Tucked away on a dead-end road in a peaceful neighborhood, it delivers privacy without isolation. For those wanting more, an additional 53± acre parcel is also available behind this lot, perfect for urban hunting, fishing, and enjoying Bogalusa Creek
