The Estate

38± Acres

Located at 1236 Jack Johnson Road in Terry, Mississippi, this 38± acre property offers the space, privacy, and versatility that make country living so appealing. The acreage features a combination of open ground, mature trees, wooded areas, and a large maintained yard surrounding the residence. With plenty of room for horses, livestock, gardening, hunting, recreation, or simply enjoying the outdoors, the land lends itself to a variety of uses. The mix of usable open areas and surrounding timber creates an attractive setting with a secluded country feel while remaining within reach of the Jackson metro area.

The Residence

2,000± Square Feet

The 3-bedroom, 2-bath home offers a warm country feel beginning with its covered front porch. Inside, the living and dining areas feature beautiful wood flooring, a brick fireplace, French doors, and plenty of natural light. The kitchen provides ample cabinetry, an island, and convenient access to the laundry area. A standout feature is the spacious primary bedroom, measuring approximately 18'3" x 19'5". Vaulted ceilings, exposed wood beams, brick flooring, and numerous windows give the room distinctive rustic character, while its generous size provides room for a sitting area or home office. Two additional bedrooms and a second full bathroom complete the layout.

Extra Features

The additional improvements add significant functionality and versatility to the property. A 24' x 40' two-bay shop provides excellent space for equipment, ATVs, tools, storage, and projects, and includes an approximately 24' x 12' interior storage area. For horse owners, the property also features a 24' x 12' horse stable currently set up for two horses. An additional 16' x 10' storage building with a covered porch provides even more usable space for equipment, lawn tools, recreational gear, or general storage.
