Remarks

Property Description: Come see these 166 acres of a hunting families dream. With 100 feet of elevation change and many many trees and brush for cover the wildlife is abundant on this property. There are 2 blinds and 4 feeders that are currently feeding as well as food plots. The 3 ponds supply water for all game as well as cattle. There is plenty of pasture for grazing cattle also. There is a large home that is ready for relaxing or entertaining after the day's activities. All appliances and furniture will convey. The large den off of the kitchen with fireplace is ready for the tall tales about the dead deer that got up and ran away. There is a large shop and pump house for all toys and equipment to be stored. There is a 2000-gallon water tank in the pump house that is fed by rural water that then carries on to the home. There is also a well outside the home that can provide water to the home. There is another 140 acres of good hunting or cattle land with more ponds available that joins this property. To truly appreciate this land, you have to come view and explore the property so call and make your appointment today. Don't miss out on this one.
