

Just down the road from Highway 57 on Indian Lane, this 12 acre property offers privacy, natural beauty, and convenience. The land features 4 year old planted pines and will share a pond with neighboring tracts, ideal for bass and bream fishing right from your own backyard. With ample road frontage and power running along Indian Lane, you'll find two great home sites to choose from. Build your dream home overlooking the pond and watch the sunset over the water every evening. Established trails run throughout the property, making it easy to explore and access every corner of this land. Located in the Jackson County school district, this property offers small town living without sacrificing convenience. You're just 25 minutes from the Mississippi Gulf Coast, where you can go from casting a line in your own pond to fishing the Gulf in minutes. Properties like this, with access to a shared pond, easy accessibility, and this level of proximity to the coast, don't come around often. Don't miss your chance to own this piece of Mississippi land.
