5701 HWY 190 W

One of the most scenic tracts in San Jacinto County! This beautiful property features high rolling hills with approximately 40 feet of elevation change, offering impressive views across the landscape. The land is covered with a natural native stand of mature pine and hardwood timber, adding both character and privacy. With a good amount of road frontage and no restrictions, the property offers excellent flexibility for business and/or residential use. A self-storage facility is already in place on the property and, while not currently rented, offers strong income-producing potential. Total of 19 storage units; 9'9"W X 27'L. A great opportunity for investment, development, or a private retreat.
